Students majoring in performance without an undergraduate major in the same performance area (or the equivalent) must offer two recitals, only the second of which is for credit.

Piano Proficiency. Music majors must pass a piano proficiency examination. Graduate students who have not passed this examination on the undergraduate level must take the examination prior to the first registration. Students who do not pass this examination must enroll in applied piano until the examination is passed.

Electives. Each area of study has appropriate choices of electives.

Comprehensive Examinations. All graduate students in music take comprehensive examinations toward the end of their studies. Students should consult with their adviser concerning the appropriate time to apply for these examinations and for guidance in preparing for them.

Non-degree (PTC) Students. A student who plans to study music under this classification (see p. 21) may be admitted to courses as approved by the department chair.
