

Writing Center

Nethery Hall

471-3358

The Writing Center provides students with individualized instruction by fellow students on basic writing skills and strategies. Services of the center include computer-assisted tutorial sessions, drop-in help, and a library of rhetoric and usage texts. The Writing Center also offers occasional review sessions on general writing problems.

OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAMS

With authorization from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and other controlling organizations, the various schools of the university have entered into official academic affiliation/extension arrangements with certain educational institu[e tt8 a program in which qualified students study overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. This language and cultural immersion is available in nine locations: Argentina, Austria, Brazil, France, Greece, Italy, Singapore, Spain, and Taiwan. Participation is not limited to language majors. Contact the chair of the Department of International Language Studies for further information.

Undergraduate students may study abroad in the Andrews University Year in England at Newbold College program. The purpose of this program is to allow students to participate in a culturally enriching academic experience. Information about this program can be secured by writing Newbold College or contacting the Dean of Affiliation and Extension Programs at Andrews University. Students should make application directly to the Admissions Office, Newbold College, Binfield, Bracknell, Berkshire, England RG42 4AN.

The university is concerned with educating the whole person—mentally, physically, spiritually, and socially—based on the philosophy of Adventist education. It recognizes that one's career can neither be complete nor balanced without ample provision for spiritual, cultural, and social needs. Therefore, many activities not directly related to the instructional program are available. Each student has an opportunity to take part in those of his/her special interest.

STUDENT HOUSING

Andrews University offers several choices of living quarters to meet students' needs.

Residence Halls. The university maintains two men's residence halls (Meier Hall and Burman Hall) and one women's residence hall (Lamson Hall). Double-occupancy rooms are standard. Private occupancy is permitted by special request, if space allows, for an additional fee.

Apartments and Houses for Rent. The university owns approximately 300 apartments and 25 small unfurnished houses. These are available to married students and single-parent students. Only the efficiency apartments in the Garland complex are available to single graduates or single undergraduates who are 22 years of age or older. Accommodations are available only to those who have been officially accepted as university students. Since apartments are limited, applicants are advised to apply six to nine months before their first semester of studies.

Most apartments are furnished. Tenants must supply their own linen, draperies, and culinary utensils. Unfurnished apartments have a stove and refrigerator. Heavy furniture and pianos may be placed in the apartments only by prior arrangement with the housing manager. Pianos may be used on ground floors only. Pets are not allowed in university apartments or houses. The Housing Office provides apartment descriptions, rental rates, and application forms upon request. Further information on university housing may be obtained through the University Housing Handbook available from the Housing Office.

Other Accommodations. Many area landlords have their names and phone numbers on record at the Housing Office. Students
