

INTERNATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Each year, students from 80-100 different countries enroll at Andrews University. More than 20% of the students come from other countries. This places the university among the top level of small American universities with high percentages of international students. One experiences the reality of a global village while attending college.

Institute of Church Ministry
Seminary Hall

471-3575

The Institute of Church Ministry (ICM), an entity of the Theological Seminary, shares the expertise and resources of Andrews University with the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, thus aiding denominational leaders in the accomplishment of its goals. The ICM serves as the North American Division Strategic Resource Center but also works for the General Conference, local conferences, local churches, and Adventist journals.

The work of ICM springs from the belief that the tools of social science can join with biblical and theological insights to advance the objectives of the church. Its mission is conducted through field-based research concerning Adventist youth, lay-member involvement, training for ministry, church growth, church-giving patterns, Adventist women in leadership, Adventist Hispanics, and the attitudes of Adventist members on various issues.

Institute of Diversity and Multiculturalism

471-3543

The Institute of Diversity and Multiculturalism (IDM) was established to create and foster inclusiveness in matters of race, ethnicity, culture, mental and physical abilities, age and gender. It does so by providing assistance and training through lectures, workshops and seminars to faculty, staff, businesses, church organizations, law enforcement agencies, human resource professionals and educational entities.

Institute of Hispanic Ministry
Seminary Hall, Room N206

471-6170

The Institute of Hispanic Ministry (IHM) of the Theological Seminary responds to the growing needs of Hispanic congregations in North America and beyond.

The tasks of the IHM include providing graduate-level study for Hispanic pastors both on and off campus and assisting in various ways a continuing education for Hispanic ministers. It coordinates the Hispanic MA in Pastoral Ministry and supports Hispanic courses in the MDiv and DMin programs. The IHM also provides support systems for Hispanic ministry and churches that are in transition culturally and linguistically. It encourages research and the dissemination of its findings for the Seventh-day Adventist Church at large.

Institute of Jewish-Christian Studies
Seminary Hall, Room N107

471-3349

Jews and Seventh-day Adventists share much of the same spiritual heritage and the same ideals of hope and lifestyle. Moreover, since the events of Auschwitz during World War II, Jewish-Christian issues have become a relevant part of theological concern. Therefore, the Institute of Jewish-Christian Studies organizes meetings with world renowned experts, provides a wide range of educational material, and supplements the graduate programs of the Seminary with concentrations in Jewish-Christian studies. These include courses in Jewish History, rabbinics, and languages. In all its work, the Institute seeks to train lay persons and ministers to foster constructive relations with Jews in their communities and to develop a global consciousness in all outreach and service.

Institute for Prevention of Addictions
Adjacent to the Sutherland House

471-3558

The Institute for Prevention of Addictions fosters educational programs, performs research, and provides specialized resource services and consultation about the use and abuse of alcohol and drugs. It is affiliated with the Department of Health Ministries of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. It works through program centers for prevention, rehabilitation and therapy, education, and research and evaluation. The Institute associates with organizations whose goals harmonize with its philosophy and objectives.

Institute of World Mission
Seminary Hall

471-2522

The Institute of World Mission (IWM) prepares men and women for cross-cultural service outside North America. It sponsors a tent-maker program called Global Partnerships, conducts research and publication on many different aspects of mission and church growth, and provides consultation services on missionary outreach and planning. The Institute conducts seminars and workshops on mission and church growth across cultures, prepares audiovisual aids on mission, and promotes missionary consciousness in the churches.

The IWM staff includes specialists in mission and church growth, psychology, tropical health and hygiene, church administration, missionary anthropology, and world religions. The Seminary Department of World Mission faculty also serve as members of the IWM staff.

International Center on Religion and Government

471-6039

In cooperation with the General Conference Department of Public Affairs and Religious Liberty and in close association with the history department of Andrews University, this Center undertakes various functions to augment understanding of religious liberty as a concept and to foster and safeguard that freedom in practice throughout the world.

JAMES WHITE LIBRARY

University Quadrangle

471-3275

The James White Library holds book collections totaling more than one million volumes and provides study and research facilities. Its strongest collections are in religion, education, architecture, and Seventh-day Adventist publications and resources. Periodical resources in print and electronic formats total over 8,000 titles. The library's computerized catalog, JeWeL, can be accessed through the campus electronic network as well as globally through Internet. Many major electronic databases are available on campus, and many more are accessible through Internet. Through the Michigan Library Consortium, the library has access to the Online Computer Library Center for cataloging, inter-library-loan information, and other services based on data from over 40 million entries.

The Adventist Research Center is located in the main library. An Architecture Resource Center and a Music Materials Center are located in their respective buildings on campus.
