

48 credits of formal course work, 24 credits of which must consist of seminars, directed study and reading courses. The student chooses a field of study and within that field an area of emphasis to which at least one-half (24 credits) of the course work is devoted. The student also chooses a supporting area, normally in another field, to which at least one-fourth (12 credits) of the course work is devoted. Of the remaining 12 credits of course work, three are used in GSEM854 and three in GSEM860.
