Religion—From a study of faith, ethics, and doctrine, students will gain an experiential understanding of God's divine plan for their lives.

Language/Communication—Through practice, students will develop strategies for effective oral and written English communication. A Bachelor of Arts student will learn to communicate in a foreign language at the intermediate level.

Fine Arts/Humanities—As students study and experience literature, ideas, and the performing and visual arts, they will come to understand how civilization expresses itself.

History—Students will understand the development over time of various civilizations, including their social and political structure, religions and ideas.

Life/Physical Sciences—Students will experience the scientific method of studying the natural universe and the current way of understanding it.

Mathematics and Computer Literacy—Students will develop the logical, mathematical, and computer skills essential in modern technological society.

Service—Students will apply their knowledge and skills to the benefit of others by identifying with and serving in a selected community.

Social Sciences—Students will come to understand human-behavioral theories and perspectives as manifested in social, geographic, political and economic relationships.

Fitness Education—Students will study and apply the principles of health and fitness to their own lives.

Multiculturalism/Diversity—Students will understand how people of various groups and cultures are shaped by their heritages and how the oneness in Christ of all believers impacts communication with and service to others regardless of cultural background, gender, disability, religious beliefs, or ideological differences.

Transfer Student Policy

These guidelines pertain to transfer students, not transient students. See below for definitions.

Transfer Students. To qualify as a transfer student one must have earned + credits prior to entering Andrews University from another college/university.

Transient Students. Students who begin at Andrews University and wish to take and transfer credit from another college/university are, by definition, transient students. The below guidelines do not apply for these students; they are required to
