

Social Work Elective Focus Areas for Bachelor Students

Range of options available to students

Some options are available to students who are not in the Social Work program

Options are available to students who are not in the Social Work program

People who have experienced losses, etc.

ly, and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

Understanding of common problems such as dealing with difficult people

and those who are in crisis.

elder

Gain

an

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

Receive a certificate of emphasis in social work