

Christianity is a religion of the heart. In the heart of the church, there is a place for every man, woman, and child. It is a religion that is not based on race or ethnicity, but on the love of God and the love of our neighbor. It is a religion that is not based on power or money, but on the truth and the life of the world.

The Great Commission

When we think of the Great Commission, we think of the 28 to 29 verses of Matthew 28:18-20. In these verses, Jesus commissions his disciples to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. This is the Great Commission, the mission that Jesus gave to his church. It is the mission that we are called to follow today.

But the Great Commission is not just a command. It is a promise. It is the promise that if we go and preach the Gospel, we will bring life to every man, woman, and child. It is the promise that if we go and preach the Gospel, we will bring glory to our Father in heaven.

in the center of the church's mission.

Education stands at the very center of the Great Controversy. It is the heart of the church's mission, the place where the truth is taught and the hearts are won.

Education is the key to the future of the church. It is the only way to reach the hearts of the people and to bring about the great revival of the church.

Education is the foundation of the church. It is the only way to build a strong and lasting church that will stand for the truth in all ages.

Education is the power of the church. It is the only way to overcome the forces of darkness and to bring about the triumph of the truth.

Education is the life of the church. It is the only way to keep the church from becoming a mere organization and to keep it a living and active church.

Education is the glory of the church. It is the only way to bring honor and praise to the name of the Lord.
