expected of graduate-level academic endeavor, and:

Demonstrates a dearth of knowledge and understanding with regard to the topic, and makes factual errors in the presentation;

Makes little or no reference to significant materials and information in the context of the topic;

Fails to support arguments adequately, systematically, or logically;

Gives little evidence of research in relevant sources, or makes poor use of sources; Demonstrates faulty logic and unsound reasoning;

Proposes theories and solutions that are unworkable or inadequate;

Submits answers that are unprofessional in presentation or in which poor grammar, style, and spelling are the norm rather than the exception (with some flexibility in the case of a student whose native language is not English).

CLASS POLICIES

Academic Integrity

demonstrate the ability to think clearly for themselves and exhibit personal and moral integrity in every sphere of life. Thus, students are expected to display honesty in all academic matters.

A cademic dishonesty includes (but is not limited to) the following acts: falsifying official properly to other authors and creators; misusing copyrighted material and/or violating licensing agreements (actions that may result in legal action in addition to disciplinary action taken by the University); using media from any source or medium, including the Internet (e.g., print, visual images, music) with the own (e.g. placement exams, homework, assignments); using material during a quiz or examination other than those specifically allowed by the teacher or program; stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials; copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz; assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty (e.g., falsifying attendance records, providing unauthorized course materials).

Andrews University takes seriously all acts of academic dishonesty. Such acts as described above are subject to incremental discipline for multiple offenses and severe penalties for some offenses. These acts are tracked in the office of the Provost. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to the Committee for Academic Integrity for recommendations on further penalties. Consequences may include denial of admission, revocation of admission, warning from a teacher with or without formal documentation, warning from a chair or academic dean with formal documentation, receipt of a reduced or failing grade with or without notation of the reason on the transcript, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university.

Departments or faculty members may publish additional, perhaps more stringent, penalties for Current AU Bulletin.)

appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

Registered students are considered class members until they file a Change of Registration form (Current AU Bulletin.)

student. Faculty members are expected to keep regular attendance records. Whenever the number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class

Disability Accommodations

If you qualify for accommodations under the American Disabilities Act, please see the instructor as soon as possible for referral and assistance in arranging such accommodations.

Excused Absence

Excuses for absences due to illness are granted by the teacher. Proof of illness is required. Residence hall students are required to see a nurse on the first day of any illness which interferes with class attendance. Non-residence hall students should show written verification of illness obtained from their own physician. Excuses for absences not due to illness are issued directly to the d requirements of a course. Class work is made up by permission of the teacher. (Current AU Bulletin.)

Kenneth E. Bailey. Dr. Bailey was a Presbyterian missionary in the Middle East for many years, and he makes use of his knowledge of Middle Eastern peasant culture to gain insight into the New Testament. He first gained fame for his books on the parables in the Gospel of Luke.
