

Andrews University Employee Payment Card Security Statement

Employees have access to confidential payment (credit/debit) card data while performing their jobs. Each employee has a legal and ethical obligation to protect the privacy of individuals represented in institutional records. No employee may