

---

Students should keep in mind that the group tutors do not have access to the answers for assignments and are not permitted to check answers or work directly on homework (see Homework Policy). Group tutors will guide their students towards a deeper understanding of concepts and will work towards helping the tutee to build their skills in approaching the material.